

This one-semester class will be offered Fall semester only.

Students will explore the founding and organic documents by which Americans govern themselves: foundational Biblical world view; The Declaration of Independence; The Northwest Ordinance of 1787; the United States Constitution. Next, the students will study those institutions that today affect exactly how American government really works: Congress and Legislatures; Courts; President and Governor; the media; political parties and lobbyists; grass roots activists. Tuition of $265 includes all printed materials including workbook, books, and papers.

This course is the Prerequisite for Spring Semester, Student Senate

Texts

Workbook, American Christians and Government, America's Creed, The Big Ideas: Our Silver Threads are all provided by tutor. Additional texts will include Mr. Racer's papers and other assigned documents drawn from magazines, newspapers, journals, and other such publications. Mr. Racer uses a comprehensive set of resources to support this class.